

Dr. Gerwin joined SERA in 2010 after completing an Ocular and Orbital Oncology Fellowship at the Tumori Foundation at California Pacific Medical Center in San Francisco, CA. Previously he completed a Vitreoretinal Surgery Fellowship with Retina Specialists of Alabama, LLC at the University of Alabama Medical Center in Birmingham. He did his residency training in ophthalmology at the Callahan Eye Foundation Hospital in Birmingham, Alabama.

He earned the M.D. degree with magna cum laude honors in 2003 from the University of Alabama School of Medicine. He then completed his internship at Carraway Methodist Medical Center in Birmingham. He earned a BS in engineering from Northwestern University in Evanston, Illinois.

At UAB he was a course lecturer and instructor as well as a teaching assistant and tutor. He earned numerous awards and honors as medical student and resident. Dr. Gerwin maintains an impressive schedule of research projects, writing, and professional presentations.

Dr. Gerwin's interests outside of his practice of ophthalmology include spending time with his family, gardening, home repair, skiing, and cooking.